(Sunday excepted) at One o'Clock precisely each day.

To be viewed Two Days previous and during the days of Sale from 10 to 12.

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer ; and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders ; the lot so disputed shall be immediately put up again.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s. ; above Five Pounds 2s. 6d. ; and so on in proportion.
- III. The Purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 5s. in the Pound, if required, in part of payment of the Purchase-money ; in default of which, the Lot or Lots purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- IV. The Sale of any lot is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or errors of description.
- V. The Lots to be taken away at the Buyer's Expence, immediately after the Conclusion of the Sale ; in default of which, S. Leigh Sotheby & Co. will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the Purchaser. If at the expiration of Two Days after the conclusion of the Sale, the Lots are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expence, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which they were bought. S. Leigh Sotheby & Co. will have the option of re-selling the Lots uncleared either by public or private sale, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VI. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money required or deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited ; and if any loss is sustained in the re-selling of such lots as are not cleared or paid for, all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulter at this sale.

Gentlemen who cannot attend the Sale, may have their Commissions faithfully executed by their humble Servants,

S. LEIGH SOTHEBY & JOHN WILKINSON,

FIRST DAY'S SALE.

Greek Series.

AUTONOMOUS AND IMPERIAL. COPPER.

NOTE.—These Copper Coins are chiefly very well preserved ; it is therefore deemed unnecessary to make use of the usual distinction as to preservation and rarity, excepting, of course, such as are unpublished ; the latter are all in separate lots, and at the end of the Greek Copper Series.

- 82 Sentia, 2, slightly varied from the preceding. Terentia, Ric. n. 8, rev. Sceptre between eagle and a dolphin, as on rare antique gems, sculptures, &c., very well preserved, plated, and scarce

* * Mæcena's wife was of this family.—Horat., &c.

- Sicinia, 2, n. Ric. 1, 2. Silia, rev. Voters in the enclosure of the popular assembly of the Romans, plated and antique.

* * Vaillant gives also some coins (2nd and 3rd Brass) to this family.

- Sulpicia, 2, Ric. n. 1, 4, and Ak. n. 1, 7. . 8

* * For the type of the sacred "Sus" of Alba, &c., see also the Copper Coins of Veturia, and of Atella, in Campania; Virgil, Varro, Dion: Halicarnassus, Livy, Lanzi, and Merimée.

- 83 Titia, Ric. n. 2. Tituria, n. 2, 4, and Ak. pl. iii, n. 3, 4, and note at pages 89, 90, showing "that the many and ponderous shields crushed and buried Tarpeia;" and the Rape of the Sabines, these coins certainly deserve particular attention, although not uncommon. Thoria, obv. I. S. MR. (Juno Sispita Magna Regina), rev. L. THORIVS. BALBVS., a Bull, Q. above; a punning allusion to his name: "thorius, thurium, taurus."

Todilia, Ric. pl. xlv. n. 1, very rare, although plated; Visconti's classification. Tullia, Cicero's family. . 6

- 84 Valeria, 3, Ric. n. 4, 7, 8. Vargunteia, the unique type.

Vettia, rev. Biga to left, with mules, very rare, Ric. n. 1, who gives likewise a Quinariis to this family. Veturia, Ak. n. 92, rev. interesting type of the Latium white "Sus," Etruscan alliance, &c. Vibia, 6, Ric. n. 9, 12, 14, 18, 22, 25, the n. 14 is interesting, as bearing obv. PANS., so unfavourably mentioned by Juvenal, no crook behind the mask to right; rev. Jupiter-Anxur, or beardless. Volteia, 4, Ric. n. 1, 2, 3, 4, but n. 3 has for adjunct a candelabrum, on a tripod, a very good lot . 16

GREEK, AUTONOMOUS, IN SILVER.

NOTE.—When coins perfectly alike occur, the best preserved are invariably placed in the first lots.

- 85 Emporiæ (Tarraconensis), obv. Female Head, rev. Pegasus to right: the Cupid, which forms the horse's head, being very distinct, rare in such condition, size 3¼.

Spanish Chiefs, with Celtiberian legends, 5, all varied, and described by Saulcy, "Monn. Auton. d'Espagne, 1840, Metz. . 6

- 86 Emporiæ, 2, varied, and rare. Spanish Chiefs, nearly as in the preceding lot . . . 6

- 89 Massilia, 4, as in the above lot. Gaulish Tetradrachms, 3, two very similar to the preceding, but of very barbarous fabric; another, rev. Horseman to left, the latter is very fine 7
- 90 Massilia, 4, three rev. Wheel, and M. A. between two spokes. Gaulish Tetradrachms, of uncertain attribution, 3, two, Horseman to right, one to left, very well preserved . . . 7
- 91 Gaulish Tetradrachms, somewhat different from the former 4
- 92 Gaulish Tetradrachms, varied from the preceding 4
- 93 Gaulish Tetradrachms, differing from all the above 4
- * * The foregoing coins are interesting, being all varied, and in good preservation, with numerous adjuncts, &c.; some precisians may have scruples about placing these rude coins in the Greck series, but we have none, as they are evidently copies from Macedonian Tetradrachms.
- 94 Gaulish, uncertain localities, Drachmæ and Hemi-Drachmæ sizes, but all of most irregular shapes, including an imitation of Philip II, of Macedon, all very fine, curious and interesting 10
- * * We believe that no similar coins to the above, or to the following two lots, have ever been offered for sale in England; no British and Gaulish Collector should remain without some of these very curious and finely preserved specimens.
- 95 Gaulish, slightly varied from the last, and including two varieties of Togirix, a Gaulish Chief, cf. Mt. v. I, &c. 14
- 96 Gaulish, all more or less different from those of the preceding lots . . . 14

550 Tetradrachms of Alexander III, obv. Head of the famed Macedonian King, with attributes of Hercules, rev. Jupiter Ætophorus seated to left, a tripod under the throne, Λ. and a torch under the eagle, probably struck at Amphipolis. Another, rev. with eagle beneath the throne, ΑΣ. and ΚΔ. under the eagle (Ascalon?) Another, rev. with palm tree, and ΑΡ. in monogram (Argos, or Arcadia, or more probably Aradus). Another, rev. with ΑΣ. and ΙΒ. (Assus), chiefly fine, as are also the following lots . . . 4

* * * The above and the following attributions are generally received. This important suite of fine Tetradrachms embraces many slight variations of type, peculiarities of style, and numerous symbols, letters, curious monograms, &c.

551 Similar, rev. with Β. and tripod (Amphipolis); rev. ΑΣ. and ΚΒ. (Ascalon); rev. palm tree and ΑΡ. (Aradus?); rev. ΔΙ. and a thunderbolt (Dium?); rev. Bee (Ephesus) 5

552 Similar, rev. of Amphipolis, and rev. of Aradus, as in the last lot, the latter is pierced and poor. Another, rev. of Ascalon, ΑΣϰΘ. (sic). One rev. of Corinth, with Pegasus to left, under the eagle, and Α. beneath the throne, very rare 4

555 Similar, rev. of Lampsacus, 2, fore part of the curled wing Sea Horse to right, beneath the throne, Α. and a torch under the eagle; another has a dolphin to right, under the seat; rev. with ΜΙ., ear of wheat, and monogram (apparently Myrhina); rev. with star in a circle beneath the "Jovis inclita avis," of Pindar; rev. with a dove to right, under the eagle; rev. with ΝΚ. and ΜΕ. in monograms . . . 6

* * * The difficult explanation of many of these very intricate monograms and adjuncts must be allowed to remain for our future solution.—J. C.

- 556 Similar, rev. of Mylassa, M., a trident above it; rev. with helmet in front, and ΘE. | 914 | Kings of Parthia: Arsaces XX, obv. Bust to right, rev. the King and Abundance personified, with date ENT. (355). Another, ENT. (356), the former is valued by Mt. at 300 frs., fine Tetradrachms . . . | 2 |
| 915 | Arsaces XXI, rev. with TNZ. (357); TZ. (360); AΣT. (361); and another, all rather fine Tetradrachms . . . | 4 |
| 916 | Arsaces XXI, ^v _a varied, fair Tetradrachms . . . | 3 |
| 917 | Arsaces XXI, varied, fair Tetradrachms . . . | 3 |
| 918 | Arsaces XXIII, rev. King seated to left, date TΞH. (retrograde as usual), year 368. Arsaces XXV, obv. with B. behind the head to left, rev. date ΘΠΤ. (389), both very rare and fine Tetradrachms . . . | 2 |

919 Arsaces XXIII, as before, but rev. date TΞΘ. (369).

Arsaces XXV, obv. B., &c., rev. date ΘΙIT. (389), of yellowish silver, both rare and well preserved Tetradrachms 2

920 Arsaces XXVI, obv. with A. behind the Bust to left, rev. with date AKY., year 421.

* * This King was totally defeated by Trajan, A.D. 108-116; the coinage was afterwards greatly deteriorated. Longperier made out very correctly the the chronology of all the Parthian and Sassanidæ Monarchs.

Arsaces XXVII, obv. with Γ. and ovoid or egg-shaped tiara, rev. date ΓAY. (436). Arsaces XXVIII, 2, obv. with B., and rev. date ΔΞY. (464); rev. with date ΠV.

Arsaces XXX, obv. also with B., rev. date HK Ϙ. (528) 5

* * All the foregoing lots of fine Arsacidæ Tetradrachms are in good silver with very few exceptions, beginning at Arsaces XXVI. The Drachms of Arsaces XXX. are generally met with of good work and excellent silver, whilst his Tetradrachms are in potin, and of a most barbarous fabric.

921 Sassanidæ Kings, all fine, and wt. from 66 to 67 grs. each, thus apparently Drachms after the Attic standard.

Artaxerxes I, King of Persia, and grandson of Sassan (A.D. 222-240), obv. Bust to right, celestial globe on his head, &c., rev. Piræus, or fire altar, &c., his later coinage, size 6¼; cf. Longperier's excellent Essai sur les Médailles des Rois Perses, &c., 4to. Par. 1840, at pl. ii, n. 2.

Sapor (or Chahpouhr) I, 3, all slightly varied, cf. Longperier, pl. III, n. 2, 3, one with the "mah-rou," or crescent-formed symbol, or implements of sacrifice, on the front of the altar; see Silv. de Sacy, 1793.

* * The legends are, as usual with this class of coins, through the engraver's ignorance, often blundered, repeated, &c.

Narses, (A.D. 297-303), cf. Longperier, pl. v, n. 2, extra rare and valuable . . . 5

922 Sapor I, 3, Longp. pl. iii, varied from n. 2, 3. Narses, cf. Longp. pl. v, n. 2, extra rare, very fine and valuable 4

923 Sapor I, 3, one of a much smaller module, very rare (varied from Longperier) and fine, size 1½.

Sapor II, 2, (A.D. 310-380), one rev. the sacred Head to right, (or rather the genius of the King, according to Marsden's excellent observations, see Num. Orientalia, 1823-25) on the altar instead of fire, both very fine, and much varied from Longp. pl. vi, n. 4, 5 . 5

- 924 Sapor I, cf. Longp. pl. iii, n. 3. Sapor II, 3, one as before, the good spirit of the monarch, to left, on the piræus with fire; for the other two cf. Longp. n. 3, 4, very fine 4
- 925 Sapor III. (A.D. 384-389), obv. with Crown, shaped as on some rare Persepolitan cylinders, see Ker Porter's Travels in Persia, pl. lxxix, n. 5, and also Longp. pl. vii, n. 5; in high relief, extra fine, and very rare size $6\frac{1}{2}$. wt. $69\frac{2}{10}$ grs. 1
- 926 Varahranes IV, 2, very similar to Longp. pl. viii, n. 1, 2. Izdegerdus I, 2, cf. Longp. pl. viii, n. 3, 4. Izdegerdus II, see Longp. at page 58 5
- 927 Izdegerdus II, 2. Perose (ob. A.D. 488), 2, cf. Longp. pl. ix, n. 2, 3, all very fine and rare 4
- 928 Perose, 2, as before. Cavades (Kobad), defeated by Belisarius, (ob. A.D. 532), cf. Longp. pl. x, n. 2.
Jamasp, brother to Cavades, rev. with a double engrailed circle, as in Isambert's collection at Paris, cf. Longp. pl. x, n. 3, extra rare size $7\frac{1}{2}$. 4
- 929 Cosroes I, Magnus, Longp. pl. x, n. 5, fine, and extra rare, size $8\frac{1}{2}$. Hormisdas IV, see pl. xi, n. 1, size $9\frac{1}{2}$.
Cosroes II, 2, very fine, cf. pl. xi, n. 4 sizes $8\frac{1}{2}$ and 9. 4
- * * History tells us that, about the year 580, Varahan, of royal blood and General of Hormisdas IV, to cause dissensions between the King (who had treated him most unjustly) and his son Cosroes, struck 100,000 of these silver pieces (Drachms) with the name of Cosroes II, and had them distributed near the King's residence, in the strong city of Madain; at a later period, (between 634 and 644) the Kaliph Omar likewise imitated the coins of these Persian Kings, (dirhems), adding to the legend "Praise to God," and on others, "Mahomet is the Messenger of God."
- 930 Varahran VI, the Usurper, cf. the excellent and very exact plates in Marsden's Oriental Coins, pl. xxviii, n. DXXVII; see likewise Longp. at p. 77; very rare, size 9.
Cosroes II, 2, as before, very fine, size 9. Artaxerxes III, rare, and very similar to Marsden's Numismata Orientalia, pl. xxviii, n. DXXV, size 9 4
- 931 Cosroes II, as before, fine, size $8\frac{1}{2}$. Azermi, obv. Bust of the Queen, with ear rings, &c., to right, rev. Piræus, two priests with long staffs, looking towards the altar, &c., very rare, and inedited, size $6\frac{1}{2}$. Uncertain, 3, one obv. Head of a King, three-quarter face, to right, rev. full-faced Head, probably Ormuzd, symbolic of Mithra, cf. Longp. pl. xi, n. 3, for the reverse, base silver, size 7½.

* * De Witte thinks that the small bust, whether bearded or not, placed on the altar on some of these Drachms, is meant also for the Divinity Ormuzd; Marsden, S. de Sacy, and Longperier consider it the genius of the Sovereign.

Another, obv. crowned Head of a King to right, &c., rev. Head of a King between two guardians of the sacred fire, &c., of very barbarous Mussulman work

size 7. wt. only 46 grs. 5
